PROFILE

My entrepreneurial journey started in high school, leading me through PR, film, and event management. My diverse experiences have shaped my perspective. After eight years in production, I pursued my passion for IT and design. Now, I'm on a journey to become a frontend developer and aspire to be part of a company driving positive change at the tech-creativity intersection.

WORK EXPERIENCE

PRODUCER

Maskot Bildbyrå

2021-2024

- As a producer, I orchestrated captivating photo shoots in diverse locations and handpicked models to suit each project's unique vision. From urban landscapes to serene natural settings, I ensured the perfect location. My role extended beyond logistics; I actively contributed to the shoot's concept and maintained a harmonious atmosphere on set.

FOUNDER

Agents & Scouts AB

2019-2024

- As the founder of Agents & Scouts, I managed all aspects of the business, including producing photo shoots and scouting locations for esteemed clients such as Volvo, Bang & Olufsen, Amazon, and Samsung. This role required me to oversee project logistics, budgeting, client relations, and team coordination, demonstrating my ability to successfully operate and grow a creative production company.

PRODUCTION MANAGER

THE GRAND PR

2018-2019

- As a Production Manager at The Grand, I played a pivotal role in organizing and executing commercial events and release parties for prestigious clients like OnePlus, Sony, and many others. My responsibilities included overseeing the entire event planning process, from concept development to flawless execution. This encompassed coordinating logistics, managing budgets, liaising with vendors, and ensuring that each event was a resounding success. My time at The Grand allowed me to excel in project management and event coordination, contributing to the firm's reputation for delivering exceptional client experiences.

PROJECT MANAGER

IMPERIE

2015-2017

- I began my journey at Imperie, a web bureau, as an intern during my high school years. Demonstrating a keen interest and aptitude, I quickly progressed to the role of Project Manager as the newly established company gained momentum. This role entailed managing client relationships, adhering to strict deadlines, and leading diverse teams. I thoroughly enjoyed these responsibilities and found them incredibly rewarding. My time at Imperie was a remarkable journey that offered me a wealth of learning opportunities.
